What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensatory; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

MRS. CARTER ACQUITTED.

Mrs. Laura M. Carter, who has been on trial in New York for a week on a charge of receiving stolen money, was acquitted by a jury late yesterday. She was accused of having received from Chester B. Runyan, the defaulting teller of the Windsor Trust Company, $5,000 of the $82,000 he stole from the bank.

One of the jurors said after the verdict had been returned that the jurors agreed that the testimony of Runyan, who was the principal witness against Mrs. Carter, he entirely ignored on the grounds that Runyan was a self confessed thief.

Runyan testified that he first met Mrs. Carter in the streets and that he arranged with her to conceal him. This was before his sensational departure from the bank with $82,000 in bills concealed in his suit case. He testified that he told her he was short in his accounts.

After taking all the money in his custody, he testified, he went to live in a flat with Mrs. Carter in Harlem. He said he gave her $5,000 at once and that a day or two later she demanded $10,000 more, saying that if she did not get it she would betray him. This sum, he said, he also gave her.

Mrs. Carter admitted getting $5,000, but said that as soon as she knew it had been stolen she returned it to him and then betrayed him to the police. She denied absolutely that she demanded or received the additional $10,000, as Runyan testified.

Immediately after the verdict Mrs. Carter was released from custody. She said she had not decided whether she would demand the reward offered for Runyan's capture, which amounted to $7,400.

Mrs. Carter, who had cried most of the day while the lawyers were summing up, was worn out when the jury returned its verdict, shortly after 5 o'clock. When she heard the verdict she said she was going to leave the gay life of the tenderloin and return to her home, in Baltimore. Her sister, known as Broadway Flo, waited at her side, and said she, too, was going back to Baltimore.

KILLED HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW.

News received in Mobile from Fort Deposit, Ala., says:

In a fierce shotgun duel late Thursday night near Fort Deposit, C. H. Priester shot and instantly killed his brother-in-law, J. W. Harris. Priester is one of the best-known men in that place, and Harris was equally well known. The tragedy occurred at the home of Priester- which is just outside of the city limits of Fort Deposit. Priester did not shoot until Harris had discharged his gun twice at his brother-in-law. From the best sources of information, it seems that the trouble grew out of the mistreatment of Mrs. Harris by her husband. It is said that Harris had been drinking several days and had abused his wife. She left her home and sought the protection of Priester, staying at his residence. Late Thursday evening, according to report, Harris took a shotgun and started for the residence of Priester, saying that it was his purpose to kill Priester too. Priester, seeing Harris approaching the residence with his gun in hand, took a gun and went out to meet him. Harris discharged the gun twice at Priester, but did not injure him. Then Priester opened fire, and both men advanced on each other, both continuing to shoot. When they were within fifty yards of each other, Priester fired deliberately at Harris and he fell over dead. A full load of birdshot struck him in the head. Priester has not been arrested.

DANVILLE SCHOOL TROUBLE.

A mass meeting of Danville citizens will be held next Monday night to take action regarding the tangle in the Board of Aldermen which prevented the opening of the public schools Monday last. Indications are that it will be some time before the schools are opened, and the citizens are indignant.

The board of school trustees asked for an appropriation of $20,500 for school expenses, this amount including $2,500 salary for the superintendent of schools. The aldermen, by a vote of 6 to 6, refused to adopt the report, some of them believing that the salary of the superindent, who also receives $575 from the State, is too large and should come up for action on its individual merits. The faction favoring the salary for the superintendent refuse to vote on the matter other than in connection with the appropriation.

Both sides are determined to fight to the end, and in the meantime the schools are closed to 2,500 children.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid makes it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. Cures blood poison too, billiousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING. SEPT. 7, 1907.

THE FOLLOWING from the Fredericksburg Star shows that the primary election system (or certainly some features of that system) is growing more and more in disfavor in the State, and expresses, though in different language, the views presented by the Gazette from time to time in reference to the cost saddled upon candidates, and the resulting effect in keeping good, but poor, men from securing elective positions for which they may be eminently qualified. The Star says:

We have observed from time to time with more than passing interest the unusually large assessments placed upon candidates and especially those for the Virginia State Senate, and because of this cost it is a serious question as to whether the primary plan of nomination shall be continued. For instance, in the senatorial district composed of Alexandria, Fairfax, Prince William and Alexandria county we note that the estimated cost of holding the primary is $550, and as there are three candidates each one will be required to put up about $183, which, added to the expense of each in carrying on the campaign, will exceed by far half of the entire pay of a State Senator during one term of the legislature. This is entirely too much and precludes a man of limited means from entering the political field. Then, also, this cost is small when compared to that exacted from candidates for offices such as Governor, Senator, Attorney General, etc., and for these offices no man can run unless he have considerable means and is thus able to meet the heavy assessment, to say nothing of the other cost he must necessarily incur. Some change is needed which will rid us of these conditions and we believe the best change would probably be the abolition of the primary system. There seems little reason why the State should be burdened with the cost of nominating men for public office and as the system, as it now stands, is entirely unsatisfactory, why, we believe the next State convention of the democratic party had best return us to the old method of nominating our candidates, which, though somewhat unsatisfactory also, at times, is certainly far less expensive.

FROM practically every portion of Richmond complaints are being made of the disorderly conduct of young men and boys who have formed a habit of congregating on the street corners for the seeming purpose of making remarks about young women and girls who happen to be upon the streets without escorts. The latest complaint is signed by ladies from every section of the city imploring the protection of the police department from these young ruffians. The practice has become a nuisance and an outrage. Young men who do not work gather about the street corners and await the passing of women. They line up along the curbing, greeting the passing young women with insulting remarks. The communication respectfully asks how long the nuisance is to be allowed to continue. It has been hinted that if the police force does not at once take steps to put an end to the nuisance the male citizens will take matters in their own hands and administer punishment where it belongs, and then bring the matter to the attention of the board of police commissioners. The practice referred to above is often noticeable in other cities and the police should not wait for ladies to send in communications, but enforce the law at once against the nuisance complained of.

TRUTH is often as strange as fiction. We are told that Parrhasius of Ephesus, one of the greatest painters of ancient Greece, purchased one of the Olynthians whom Pallip had sold into slavery and tortured him in order to secure a model for the picture of Prometheus undergoing the agony incident to having his liver eaten away by vultures. A story comes from Cincinnati which shows that the spirit of cruelty manifested by the Ephesian painter is not wholly extinct. A young man had fallen out of a boat and was drowning in the Miami river last Sunday. A young man and a young woman witnessed the accident, and the former suggested that he and his companion get in a skiff lying near them and attempt to rescue the unfortunate man. But the young woman was a kodak enthusiast and she exclaimed: "O wait till I get a snapshot of him." He humored her whim, and when they finally rescued the man he was beyond human aid. Several doctors later arrived on the scene. They said that if the man had been taken out of the water a minute or two sooner his life could have been saved.

THIS IS seed year for the white pine, and now is the time to do the picking, according to Professor Rane, the new State forester of Massachusetts, who is trying to develop an interest in the seed crop now going to waste, and he has issued a pamphlet pointing out the methods and the advantages. White pine is grown from seed only; it does not sprout from the roots when cut, as do hard woods. Yet the seeds from it are not saved in many States. High prices are paid for seeds. In recent years the prices have been from $1.50 to $4.50 a pound. In the spring of 1907 the price, in large quantities, was $3 75 a pound.

JUDGE BLACKSTONE in the Circuit Court of Accomac yesterday was perfectly right in his criticism of Gov. Swanson for his haste in sending troops to that county, which custom is becoming too common. Judge Blackstone in referring to this matter said:

It was the act of a spectacular governor, frequently given to spontaneous combustion. This action on the part of the governor was a blot on the fair name of Accomac county, as twenty good men could have done more in putting an end to any disturbance than all the "boy soldiers" who were sent to the Eastern Shore.

It will be remembered that Gov. Swanson sent troops to this city last spring when the exigencies of the occasion warranted no such action.

SENATOR MACHEN should abandon his idea about longer sessions of the legislature. His constituents are not in sympathy with him on this question, a large majority of them being teetotally opposed to any extension. At many sessions of the legislature the State has been done more harm than good, and many now think that the fewer and the shorter the sessions are the better it would be for the people. Sixty days, if properly devoted to working and not talking, is long enough for the legislature to sit.

IT IS said to be practically certain that the federal government will eventually take over the Jamestown Exposition site and turn it into a great naval training station, for it is now apparent that the Exposition Company will never be able to pay back the whole of the $1,000,000 loaned from the Federal Treasury. The site is an ideal one for such a station.

THE PEOPLE of Alexandria should be greatly interested in the selection of the men who are to represent them in the legislature. At the approaching session the matter of the refunding of the city's bonded indebtedness ($750,000) will come up, and men well posted in such matters should be in Richmond to look after the city's interests.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Sept. 7.

Having made an express reservation at the time of the signing of the Algeciras treaty regarding Morocco to the effect that the United States would undertake no responsibilities in connection with the operations of that convention, this country is not particularly concerned in the troubles of France and Spain in the effort to restore order in the land of the Moors. So far as the State Department has been advised no American interests are involved and no American citizens are in danger.

Because of the fact that no additional details have been received other officially or unofficially about the reported wholesale deportation of Hindoos from Bellingham, Washington, the opinion prevails here that the story of the labor troubles at that point have been considerably exaggerated.

The report on the operations of the rural delivery service up to September 1, 1907 shows that there are 37,961 routes in operation, served by 37,832 regular carriers.

Serious defects in the management and the equipment of the warships are exposed in the September number of "The Navy," a month journal published in the interests of the Navy League. Commenting on the recent maneuvers, the leading editorial written, it is believed, by a retired admiral, says, in part:

"The range-finder crews were inadequately drilled. The range-finders are in tops which vibrated so that it was difficult to read the ranges at time with a less error than five hundred yards. They are exposed to the full force of the wind, which makes it very difficult to get readings. After the ranges are found there is no way of getting them to the guns except by very crude, hastily provided means. In short, the fleet is as ill-prepared to control fire today as it was in the Spanish-American war. The conning towers were not used on any of the ships, since they are poorly designed and inadequately equipped. Our superstructures, from mast to mast, are a jumble of great, tall smoke stacks and ventilators, cranes, useless bridges, and masts which serve for nothing but signal hoists."

Manchuria is threatened with famine-like conditions this winter, according to a report that Consul F. D. Fisher, of Harbin, has sent to the State Department. The usual wet season, May and June, brought no rains, and the extremely hot temperature—maximum 120 degrees—that has prevailed since July 1, has withered the crops and dried up the fields.

There is now in the Treasury of the United States, subject to the order of the Governor of Virginia, $15,146.40, to be used for rifle practice purposes. This includes the construction of a rifle range, if the State authorities shall see fit to do so. Besides this, there is an additional amount, $39,905.86, available for arms, equipment and camp purposes, the same payable upon the order of the Governor of the State.

Government proof readers Williliam A. Peffer, jr., and Wm. F. Dorsey, have paid fines of $37 each assessed by Public Printer Stillings because they passed the word "cemetery" for "seminary" in an educational report.

Bank Examiner Moxley, of Chicago, conferred today with acting Attorney General Russell relative to the case of John W. Walsh, of Chicago, under indictment on the charge of violating the national banking laws in connection with the Chicago National and several other banking concerns. The Walsh case may be brought to trial this winter, it is believed.

Mrs. Carter Wants Reward.

New York, Sept. 7.—Mrs. Laura M. Carter, who sheltered and afterwards surrendered Chester B. Runyan, the Windsor Trust Company's thieving teller, is preparing papers today for suit to recover the $8,000 offered for Runyan's arrest. Mrs. Carter who was tried on a charge of receiving part of the $96,000 which Runyan stole was acquitted last night after a hysterical wait while the jury deliberated.

TWELVE PERSONS KILLED.

Twelve persons were killed and 12 others injured in the wreck of an express train on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad at Norris, Ia., yesterday. The express train, northbound, jumped the track while going at full speed and crashed into a freight train standing on the siding.

All of the dead and injured were in the smoking car, which was immediately behind the baggage and mail car. The smoking car was demolished.

The northbound express was 10 minutes late at Norris, where the freight train was waiting. The express came along at terrific speed in an effort to make up time. Just as the locomotive of the passenger train was about to pass the freight locomotive the trucks of the former left the track and the moving engine crashed into the engine of the freight, wrecking both locomotive and telescoping the baggage and the mail car and demolishing the smoking car. The passengers in the two day coaches following the smoking car escaped with a violent shaking up.

MORE INDICTMENTS.

As the result of an investigation begun before the federal grand jury in Jamestown, N. Y., early in July, the jury yesterday returned four indictments, one each against the Standard Oil Company, the New York Central Railroad, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and one against these two railroads jointly.

The indictment against the Standard Oil Company and those against the railway companies separately contain 128 counts each and that against the railroads jointly contained 54 counts, all of them charging a violation of the interstate commerce law, either in accepting or granting rebates on oil shipments from Olean to points in Vermont.

The law provides a penalty of $20,000 for each provision violated, or each count. Therefore, if convictions are made according to the indictments returned, the three companies named will be subject to a total fine of $876,000.

In August the same jury returned similar indictments, embracing other charges against the same concerns, with a total number of counts sufficient to have justified fines, in case of conviction, of more than $18,000,000.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Governor Swanson Silent.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Sept. 7.—"At this time I have nothing to say in regard to the alleged statement of Judge Blackstone." The foregoing was all the comment Governor Swanson would make today when interviewed on a statement telegraphed from Accomac alleging that Judge Blackstone yesterday, at the opening of the race riot trials, remarked that the sending of troops to the Eastern Shore was "the act of a spectacular Governor who is frequently given to spontaneous combustion." The Governor will probably have something interesting to say later.

A statement was given out on behalf of the Board of Agriculture today pledging the board to work in harmony with Commissioner Koiner hereafter the board taking this action in response to a published statement several days ago that Commissioner Koiner was willing to forget. He and all hands to the contrary, wish to stave off legislative inquiry.

Woman Convict Pardoned.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 7.—After serving 16 years in state prison, one-half of her life, Mrs. Wilhelmina Baehr is at liberty today by the pardon of the governor. She entered prison a girl wife, ignorant of the law and unable to speak English. She left it a broken, faded woman. Half of her life has been sacrificed to the greed of a husband old enough to have been her grandfather.

She came from Germany. She was scarcely 15 years old. Her parents took a farm in the wood in Shawano county and a few months afterward she married a widower named Baehr because her parents told her to. He was 35 years her senior and had children older than she. He was known as a man willing to be anything to get money. Wilhelms became his house drudge. One night a traveller, Michael Sells, stopped at the Baehr home for the night. Apparently he had money.

The greed of the old man, Baehr, was excited and he resolved to put Sells out of the way. Accordingly he told Wilhelmina to put poison in the food she gave Sells for supper, and he died the next day. Baehr put the whole blame on his child-wife and she was arrested. When her trial was called her husband advised her to plead guilty, telling her that if she did she would escape with a light sentence in jail. The girl did as she was told. Instead of giving her a light jail sentence, the judge sentenced her to state's prison for life. Even then she did not realize how great her punishment was to be, and on the day that she was taken to prison she told her friends that she would be back in seven months. Soon after she entered the state prison her husband committed suicide, driven to it, it is claimed, by remorse for his act in compelling his wife to poison Sells.

After Baehr's death the case of the girl wife in the penitentiary was forgotten and she was left without friends. Two weeks ago several wealthy and influential citizens of Oconto county interested themselves in her behalf and a petition for her pardon reciting the facts in the case was laid before Governor Davidson. He investigated for himself and became convinced that justice had been satisfied. Hence her pardon.

War Spirit in Germany.

Weisbaden, Germany, Sept. 7.—War spirit is growing in Germany. This is the significant deduction from expressions at the annual conference of the Pan-German league which began here today. The league can be safely said fairly to represent the great mass of Germany, and both in the speeches and reports of committees a bellscose spirit is manifested. This war spirit is directed principally against Great Britain, but violent antagonism to the United States is also shown. It grows out of the feeling among Germans that America is trying to undermine German industries in South America. A vigorous foreign policy for Germany, especially against the United States, is urged. The Kaiser comes in for severe criticism in the executive committee's report. He is described as a weakling who fails to back up his words with deeds. The report openly declares that Germany has no confidence in William's control of affairs. It urges rapid and substantial increases in the navy. Attempts which have been made to establish more friendly relations between Germany and England are denounced.

The Lusitania Sails.

London, Sept. 7.—The great Lusitania, the largest ship that ever put to sea, started today on her maiden trip across the Atlantic ocean from Liverpool via Queenstown, and engaged in a championship race with the Lucania, which for a long time has held the record time for passage between Queenstown and New York. Great secrecy was maintained by the Cunard company in regard to the passenger list for the first trip, as it was feared, the officers said, a great crowd of sight-seekers would cause them much inconvenience upon their arrival in New York. The greatest ship is 790 feet from stem to stern and the United States government rushed the work on the Ambrose channel in order to make it possible for her to enter New York harbor.

Life's Savings Stolen.

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 7.—John L. Kerns, aged 54 years, drew his life's savings out of a Wilmington bank, amounting to $1,610, about a week ago and today he is penniless. He had intended to buy a farm but a search of the title to the property at the courthouse, delayed the consummation of the deal. For safe keeping he buried the money in the cellar of his home and it was stolen.

Another Uprising in China.

Hong Kong, Sept. 7.—A serious uprising has occurred in the Fing-Shing district. Hundreds of natives are in revolt. At Yung Chow the local magistrate and his entire family have been killed and the officials' houses destroyed. Four regiments of troops have been dispatched to the scene.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 7.—The room traders sold enough stock to cause moderate declines in all the active issues. This reaction was followed by a slow recovery of about half the losses made at the start. Taken altogether the price movements were narrow and the trading was without much significance.

Buried by Snow Slide.

Santiago, Chile, Sept. 6.—A big force of rescuers is digging in the snow in an effort to save fifty persons buried with the Chilean custom house at Juncal under an avalanche yesterday. It is admitted that it is doubtful when any one will be found alive. The station is high up in the Andes. It was completely obliterteated by monster snow slide.

MEETING LAST NIGHT.

The Opera House was well filled last night by an audience which gathered to hear speeches from State Senator Lewis H. Machen and Mr. A. J. Wedderburn, who is a candidate for the former's seat. The gallery was partly filled by ladies who seemed to enjoy the addresses of the two candidates which at times were spirited. An orchestra enlivened the occasion. Comparatively good order prevailed.

Mr. Charles Bendheim, chairman of the city democratic committee, presided and introduced the speakers.

When the two candidates appeared on the stage there was considerable applause. Mr. Machen was first introduced, and spoke for about an hour. Most of his address was in a humorous vein. Toward the close he appealed to his hearers to examine closely his senatorial record, and called attention to the fact that it was customary to give State Senators in this district a second term. The speaker declared himself in favor of the reduced railroad rates promulgated by the State corporation commission, expressed the belief that the courts would uphold the authority of the commission in the matter, but in case of the contrary decision, he advocated the adoption of measures by the legislature to make the findings of the commission in the premises imperative. He advocated the abolition of the tax on physicians, and said he was in favor of increasing the length of the sessions of the legislature from sixty to ninety days. He also said that he had been blacklisted by the Anti-Saloon League because he had refused at the last session of the legislature to take up out or order certain of Judge Mann's resolutions on the liquor question. The speaker said that he was not in favor of State prohibition. He told of the labors, physical and mental, necessary in order to finish the business during the present short session. He also said several hundred bills died on the calendar last session, there being no time to consider them.

Referring to Mr. R. Ewell Thornton, of Fairfax county, another candidate for the nomination, Senator Machen said that so far as he and Mr. Wedderburn knew, he might be hunting jack-rabbits and coons in the backwoods, as he had never participated in any of their meetings.

When Mr. Wedderburn arose the applause he received showed that he had many friends in the audience. Mr. Wedderburn began his speech in an excited and determined manner, and without entering into any preliminaries boldly attacked Mr. Machen's senatorial record and said that he had virtually accomplished nothing while in the legislature. He had succeeded in getting two bills through the body, but by neglecting to have them properly entered upon the journals of the two houses they had been declared invalid. He expressed his opposition to lawyers predominating in legislative bodies for the purpose, he said, "of making laws to make business for the lawyers." Referring to a pamphlet that had been distributed through the Opera House, and which Mr. Machen said he had read, but had been unable to name, Mr. Wedderburn said "that contains my record and my platform, two things that my competitor hasn't got." The speaker promised to use his individual efforts in behalf of Alexandria should he be elected, and appealed to his hearers to take an inventory of his previous labors in behalf of the city. At the close of his speech he interrogated Mr. Machen as to his choice for circuit judge. The latter was non committal, although some in the audience were anxious for him to announce his preference, and so expressed themselves.

At the conclusion of Mr. Wedderburn's speech Mr. Machen, who had been challenged to define his position upon the judgeship, arose and said he was perfectly willing to state frankly his position upon this question. There was considerable confusion at this time and cries of "tell us how you stand" and "that's what we want to know." Two or three gentlemen, who are said to be from Prince William county, were especially vociferous. One of these said "Tell us now; be a man," to which Mr. Machen replied: "I think my manhood will stand any test which the gentleman may propose," at which there was a demonstration of applause. Mr. Machen then stated his position earnestly and clearly and though there was much applause there were no further interruptions.

Mr. Machen said in part: "As soon as Judge Nicol resigned I was solicited to sign a petition for the appointment of Mr. Johnson. This I declined to do, saying that as I would probably be called upon next January to vote in the legislative caucus for the judge, I wished to be free to vote for the best man available at the time and that I did not think it right to try to influence the appointment of any man or to tie my hands so far in advance in any manner. I was told that if I did not declare for Mr. Johnson I would probably have opposition. I said that I could not be frightened into what I deemed a wrong position by a threat of opposition.

Later my partner, Mr. Moncure, was spoken of for the place, but I declined to commit myself to him for the reason already stated. Nearly two months ago Mr. Moncure withdrew from the race and announced that for business reasons he would be unwilling to accept either the appointment or the election.

Subsequently, I was told that Hon. J. B. T. Thornton would probably be appointed judge and that if I did not announce myself for his election I would have opposition in the person of his brother, Mr. R. E. Thornton, of Fairfax. I replied that Hon. J. B. T. Thornton was pledged to support me for the renomination, and, I was informed, was one of the first men to urge Mr. Johnson to be a candidate for the appointment.

Besides, I knew he had been politically hostile to Governor Swanson. Also, the Governor had declared there was no vacancy and that he would not appoint anyone unless Judge Barley should ask to be relieved, and Judge Barley had repeatedly said that he was physically and mentally able to attend to the business of the circuit and did not wish to be relieved. Moreover, the demand for an immediate appointment appeared to be based upon some dissatisfaction with Judge Barley which was difficult to understand, and it appeared unlikely that Judge Barley would lend himself to a scheme to effect his own elimination. I could not imagine what circumstances or what influences could change this situation and I therefore thought the contest would be wholly in the legislature.

Then came Mr. Thornton's appointment. Then efforts were made to induce me to say I would support the Governor's appointee. And I said that though the Governor's choice was entitled to weight and consideration and might, under some conditions, be highly persuasive, it was not conclusive. The constitution left the election with the legislature, a coordinate branch of the government, and though the legislature in such cases usually ratifies the Governor's choice, it does not always do so. For instance, Judge Moomaw, of Roanoke, who had been appointed by Governor Montague, was defeated for the election by the legislature at its last session.

I do not know to what extent, if any, the Thorntons were aware of these efforts to induce me to declare for Judge Thornton, but I know that I was given almost positive assurances, by men in whose word I have absolute confidence, that if I would declare for him Mr. R. E. Thornton could be gotten out of the race for the senate. Again I replied that I thought I could defeat Mr. Thornton possibly in Prince William, probably in Fairfax and certainly in Alexandria city and county, where he was scarcely known personally or otherwise to more than a few dozen voters.

But I added that I would rather be defeated for every office to which I might ever aspire than to win by means of any deal, bargain or understanding whatever, and that the judgeship, above everything should not be made a football of politics. And so I remain now, as I was at the begining, free to discharge my duty to the district, if I am elected, in a manner which may seem right and proper when the time comes for action. It may be that there will be only one candidate who, of course, will be elected. It is possible that Judge Thornton may not aspire for the election. Mr. Johnson has not publicly announced that he will contest for the prize. He has simply declined to say that he would not be in the race. What I said first I say last: I wish to be free to consider carefully and fully the qualifications of those who may be aspirants at the time. I have refused to heed any threat or inducement. I have declined to be cajoled or dragooned or bedevilled into espousing the cause of this man or that. If the people like my independent position they will doubtless re-elect me. Otherwise, they may defeat me. In either event I should have the consciousness of having done my duty as I see it."

At the conclusion of Mr. Machen's answer there was much applause and many expressions of approval.

Mr. Wedderburn arose and said were he elected he would vote for the man a majority of his constituents preferred, and would ascertain their wishes by a primary before casting his vote. If left, however, to his personal choice in such primary he would vote for John M. Johnson. This brought forth great applause.

The meeting later adjourned.

The audience seemed to be fickle. At times Mr. Machen received vociferous and long-continued applause, but many of Mr. Wedderburn's utterances brought forth equally as much applause, and both candidate seemed to wield power which swayed their hearers.

The two candidates seemed at a loss for an issue on which to conduct their campaign, and there was more pleasantry displayed than argument or logic.

Double Tragedy.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—A double tragedy which the police are investigating occurred today in Evanston, Mrs. Frederick M. Fish being found dead in bed with her head crushed. By her side lay her husband, a wealthy retired broker, with his throat cut and gasping for breath as the blood poured from his wound. Servants discovered the tragedy when they went to awaken the couple in the home in one of Evanston's most fashionable streets. The Evanston police were notified immediately. Physicians hastened to the house and attempted to revive Mrs. Fish. Fish was removed to a hospital, but he will probably die. Friends could give no reason why the couple should have sought death, as their lives had always been happy. Neighbors are inclined to think burglars committed the crime. A bloodstained meat cleaver was found in the room near the bed.

Old Man Charged With Murder.

Chester, Pa., Sept. 7.—Daniel Friel, 87 years old, was held for further examination today on the charge of murdering the thirteen-months-old baby of Mrs. Mary Mathews, who was shot in a family quarrell at his home about 2 a. m. today. Members of the family said they were aroused by the screams of Miss Margaret McKenna, a guest from Colorado, who ran through the house crying that someone was chasing her. She dashed into a second-story bed room and plunged out of a window, they said. About the same time shots were fired Mrs. Friel, sister-in-law of the accused, was so terrified that she threw her ten-months-old baby out of the same window. It fell into the arms of Thomas Sweeney, a passer-by and escaped injury.

Exploring Party Safe.

London, Sept. 7.—Captain Mickelson, President of Leffingwell and other members anglo-American expedition sent out to look for an arctic continent north of the Mackenzie river are safe, according to a private message received in London today from Gibbon, Alaska. No. details are given. A party of Hudsons Bay Company for hunters brought the news to Athbaska landing Thursday that Mickelson, Leffingwell and other members of the party left their ship, the Duchess Bedford, at Port Anxious Island in February, started northward with sixty day provisions and had not been heard from since. It is doubtful if the explorers will ever be heard from.

An Offer of Peace.

Tangier, Morocco, Sept. 7.—An offer of peace has been made to Gen. Drude, commanding the French forces at Casablanca, by the Caouis tribesmen. Three sheiks of the tribe arrived there today asking that terms of peace be named. General Drude promptly replied that he would grant an amistice of forty-eight hours to discuss peace terms, the tribesmen to surrender their ammunition in the meantime. He proposed to hold the Sheiks as hostage for the terms being observed. He notified the Sheiks they would be killed and the country of Caouis devastated if the conditions were violated.

Shot Her Betrayer.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Seeking to save herself from the shameful life of a "white slave" Minnie Harris, a 19-year-old girl, today shot and probably fatally wounded her alleged betrayer, Sidney Harris, in a notorious saloon. "You have ruined my life. You have robbed me of my honor," she screamed as she fired the shot. The bullet severed an artery. The woman ran into the street and turned and pointed the revolver at her own head and fired.

Shaker Settlement Burning.

Tilton, N. H., Sept. 7.—The Shaker settlement which was established here over 10 years, is being swept by fire, which broke out this morning. Help has been summoned from neighboring places, but there is little hope of saving any of the big wooden buildings which stand on each side the narrow street.

Demand on United States.

London, Sept. 7.—A demand for a prompt accounting from America for the mobbing of Hindoos in Washington State, is urged upon England by the Pall Mall Gazette. British prestige in India says the Gazette, will suffer if England fails to protect its subjects abroad.

JUDGE SCORES GOVERNOR.

The trial of John Uzzle, one of the negroes who participated in the race riot of Onancock by shooting Garland E. Belote, a white boy, was begun yesterday in the Circuit Court of the county of Accomac, with Judge Blackstone presiding.

Most of the morning hour of court was consumed in arguing a motion for a change of venue owing to the fact that the governor had deemed it proper to order the militia to be sent to Onancock, and so much public sentiment was aroused against the negroes of that community, that, therefore, a fair trial could not be had. The judge overruled the motion for a change of venue and took occasion to severely arraign the governor for having sent the boys in uniforms to the county when no official of the county had so requested. Said he:

"It was the act of a spectacular governor, who is frequently given to spontaneous combustions." He declared that owing to the act of the governor in sending the militia to Onancock he had been forced to send a posse of 20 men as a matter of precaution to escort Uzzle, Burton and Conquest from the Norfolk jail to the county of Accomac, thereby casting a blot upon the fair name of the county.

He declared that the posse of 20 men could do more toward quelling a disturbance than all the boy soldiers who were stationed at Onancock, many whom were too small to carry a musket. The trial will not be finished this week.

Miss Kuttner, the "affinity" of Frederick Pinney Earle, in New York, says she was urged by Earle's wife to try to fill the need in his life which she admits she has been unable to meet.

One of President Roosevelt's teeth in a ring, was offered for sale in New York recently.

Fort Myer, in Alexandria county, according to the annual report of Maj. Gen. Frederick D. Grant, commanding the Department of the East, is one of the five most unhealthful posts in his command, others being Forts Washington, Wadsworth, Ethan Allen and Howard, each of which had more than 5 per cent of soldiers non-effective.

At the Washington District Conference of the M. E. Church South, which has been in session at Marshall this week, the pastor of the Church at Del Ray, Rev. O. C. Beall, reported his charge as in a good spiritual condition, with the finances up to date.

The secretary of the conference, Rev. Charles D. Bulla, reported that the people of Washington Street Church, Alexandria, were appreciative, and that he had been addressing his efforts as pastor to the youth of the city. The result was an opportunity has opened by the people providing a building for auxiliary work, costing about $22,000. The building will be dedicated in December, and will contain rooms for the kindergarten, boy's league, and a reading room, and a social hall for such literary entertainments and lectures as will be of value to the young people.

MONEY STOLEN FROM STEAMER.

On Tuesday morning $470 in bills was missed from the safe in the office of Pursuer Joseph D. Huntington on the steamer Jamestown. The money is believed to have been stolen between the hours of 2 o'clock and 7 o'clock a. m. while the boat lay at her wharf in Washington. The thief left a large amount of silver in the cigar box which contained the $470, and another package of bills amounting to several hundreds of dollars, besides a package of $2,000 which was found intact in another part of the safe. The day after the robbery was discovered a night watchman resigned. He was arrested yesterday, but the police admit that they have nothing with which to connect him with the disappearance of the money and are merely holding him for investigation.

DANGER ON BRIDGE.

People who use Hunting creek bridge say that care should be taken in passing over the structure, especially at night. As has ever been the case, many anglers use the bridge, and some pull the planking from the floor a few feet out in order to afford seats over the water, and neglect to replace them in position. This leaves dangerous gaps in the bridge into which pedestrians or horses are likely to fall. The authorities of Fairfax county should take immediate action in the matter before some serious accident occurs.

SCHOOL PERMITS.

The clerk of the City School Board will on Monday morning next at 9 o'clock at Armory Hall commence the issuing of permits to children to attend the public schools. To secure permits children must be seven years old and must present their father's or guardian's tax receipts for the year 1907. Permits will be issued to white children on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and to colored children on Thursday and Friday. The hall will be opened from 9 a. m. till 2 p. m.

A young woman, charged with using abusive language toward an acquaintance was acquitted.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.

The Jewish New Year's Day, which falls this year on Monday next, begins, according to Jewish chronology, the year 5668 since the creation of the world. In the Hebrew calendar New Year's Day is the first day of the month of Tishri, the seventh month of the ancient Hebrew ecclesiastical year, but the first in the Hebrew civil year. The ancient Hebrews practically had two new years—one in the month of Tishri, which is still observed for civil purposes; the other the first day of Passover from which the religious year was reckoned. Nine days after New Year's is the Day of Atonement, the series of 10 days being deemed especially holy. They are known in orthodox Hebrew circles as "fearful days" and "days of penitence." The Day of Atonement is especially observed by a rigorous fast. This fast is also largely observed by Reformed Jews. Services appropriate to the New Year will be held in the synagogue in this city on Monday evening next. Rabbi A. Blum, of New York, will conduct the services.

MEETING IN THE COUNTY.

A meeting of the citizens of Del Ray and St. Elmo, Alexandria county, was held last night in the Mount Vernon Avenue schoolhouse, when the proposition for the extension of the water mains of the Alexandria Water Company to Del Ray and St. Elmo was considered. No definite action was taken on the question, but it was decided to send a representative to the meeting of the county supervisors at the courthouse today, and Howland R. Gary, of Del Ray, was selected for that service.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. John McNabb, rector of St. Timothy's church, Herndon, who recently resigned, has been requested by his vestry to reconsider his action and take some months for a needed rest.

Rev. W. H. Darbie, rector of Emmanuel church, Woodstock, has accepted a call to become rector of St. Anne's parish, Albemarle county. Mr. Darbie is an alumnus of the Virginia Theological Seminary.

Rev. R. C. Cowling, late rector of Christ church, Middlesex county, has accepted a call to Wickliffe parish, Clarke county, in succession to the Rev. F. M. Burch, who resigned some months since to become one of the assistants to the City, Missionary at Philadelphia.

The committee in charge of the reunion and banquet of the Virginia Seminary Alumni, in connection with the meeting of the General Convention in Richmond, notify all who are interested in that event, that it will be held on the night of Friday, October 11th.

Very important improvement is being made on old Aquia church, Stafford county. The tower, which formerly contained the bell and clock, and which has been in existence for one hundred and fifty years, is being thoroughly renovated, and when restored will add greatly to the imposing appearance of the venerable building.

Funds are in hand for the renovation of Clifton church, near Wide Water, in the same county. Among the improvements contemplated is a tower at the north corner. This will give it a very attractive and churchly appearance. —[Southern Churchman.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more live than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisic, stops hemorrhage of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

TO POLICE MOROCCO.

A most important change, it is said, has occurred in the political aspect of the Moroccan question, a change which may have a far-reaching effect on the future of Morocco and the relations of the powers thereto. France and Spain have the intention to occupy the littoral ports of Morocco with their own forces and establish police organizations.

This contemplated action results from the official announcement of the Moroccan government, through the war minister, El Gabbas, that it is unable to guarantee the safety of the European instructors of the international police force, which, under the terms of the Algeciras convention, was to be composed of Moors.

The dilemma of France and Spain, who by the terms of the Algeciras convention are compelled to organize the international police, was submitted to the signatory powers, including the United States, and they all agreed that the situation demanded that France and Spain police Morocco themselves. Although it is distinctively stipulated that such occupation is merely provisional, or until it is safe to recruit the police from among the Moors, there is a strong feeling that the absolute anarchy reigning in Morocco may mean that this occupation of the ports may be long drawn out—perhaps lasting indefinitely.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everythere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc.

Senator Machen Asks Renomination.

To the Democrats of the Fourteenth Senatorial District:

I hereby announce that I shall seek a renomination as State Senator at the democratic primary September 10th.

For many years it has been the custom in this district to return a Senator for a second term if he so desired, and I trust that a careful scrutiny of my official record will not disclose any reason for violating this custom at this time.

Having been a resident of Alexandria for more than 5 years, and having been for a much longer period associated in business and otherwise with the people of the city, it is natural to suppose that I understand its needs and could serve its interests in the legislature as well as some one who is not a resident and has had no legislative experience. I solicit the generous support of my home city.

Respectfully,

aug16 td LEWIS H. MACHEN.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 14TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT. I respectfully announce myself a candidate for State Senate in the democratic primary September 10th, 1907. ALEX. J. WEDDERBURN.

To the Democratic voters of the 14th Senatorial district:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Senator from the 14th Senatorial District of Virginia, subject to the democratic primary to be held on September 10, 1907, and if nominated and elected, I pledge myself to the service of the best interests of the district and State. Very Respectfully,

R. E. THORNTON.
